

Finding Your Roots: Achieving Success in Jewish Genealogy

Online Presentation Jan. 30, 2022 by Rick & Paul Cauthen

Hosted by The Mercantile Library/Sponsored by Jewish Cemeteries of Greater Cincinnati

List of Links from Presentation Slides

JewishGen Tool - Reading Hebrew Tombstones

<http://www.jewishgen.org/InfoFiles/tombstones.html>

Websites where you can seek assistance with tombstones by posting a photo

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/JewishGenealogyPortal/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/tracingthetribe/>

<http://www.jewishgen.org/ViewMate/>

Search the JewishGen Given Names Database (Could Polish Chawa be American Eva?)

<https://www.jewishgen.org/databases/GivenNames/search.htm>

Steve Morse Jewish Calendar Tool (convert Jewish date to Julian or Gregorian date and vice versa)

<https://stevemorse.org/jcal/jcal.html>

Landsmanschaften Cemetery example

<http://www.mountzioncemetery.com/societies.asp>

JewishGen Gazetteer (how to determine that Kurshany, Russian Empire = Kuršenai, Lithuania)

Start with the Communities Database:

<https://www.jewishgen.org/Communities/jgcd.php> [not shown in slide] if no luck, then try

<https://www.jewishgen.org/Communities/LocTown.asp> [shown in slide]

Latvian State Historical Archives digital images (Abraham Goldov example)

<https://raduraksti.arhivi.lv/>